

Professor Dr. Nino Abralava

Professor of Tbilisi State Medical University, Head of the Foreign Languages Academic Department, Director of the Foreign Languages Center

Professor Nino Abralava, Doctor of Pedagogy (specializing in foreign language teaching), is the author of many scientific publications and manuals. She is the author and editor of multiple international scientific magazines and textbooks. She is also an organizer of multiple international conferences.

Nino Abralava often participates in international scientific conferences. She is the author of numerous articles, to include the publications related to the ongoing reforms in education and language policy of Georgia, which were published in an international scientific magazine in Germany. She is a recipient of 20 international academic and scientific grants.

Prof. Abralava has many years of experience in both scientific and pedagogical and educational management, both in Georgia and abroad. She is a scientific research expert, and served as a head of the dissertation thesis, on a number of occasions in Georgia as well as Germany.

Prof. Abralava studied and worked in Germany and Austria for over 10 years. Her diploma work was conducted at the University of Saarbrücken. She has continued the education at the universities of Essen and Munster.

Prof. Abralava has completed many methodological and advanced international courses in Germany as well as in the United States.

She has been actively involved in up to 100 international and local conferences and trainings, which has been conducted for both teachers and public servants.

Prof. Abralava leads implementation of various international exchange projects, and actively cooperates with the leading universities, to include Goethe Institute, DAAD- German Academic Exchange Service, and the European Commission. She serves as an expert of dissertation Council at Munster University. She also serves as an academic expert and a subject expert at an academic selection committee at various universities in Georgia. She has organized variety of Republican and International olympiads and scientific competitions, which resulted in many Georgian youth receiving financial aid to study in Germany.

Professor Nino Abralava is also an active member of the International Association of Georgian-German Teachers' Association (member of the Association, Vice President, General Secretary, Board Member), DAAD Honorary Ambassador of German State Academic Exchange Service, Georgian-German Society, European languages Institute, and member of the Women's Council.

Prof. Abralava was a full professor of the University of Georgia, Director of the Foreign Languages Center, Head of the German Language Department. She also worked at the Ilia State University and the Academy of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

Currently Nino Abralava is a professor of Tbilisi State Medical University, Head of the Foreign Languages Academic Department and Director of the Foreign Languages Center.